Dealing with Complaints

- If any member, volunteer, staff or supporter feels they have been discriminated against or harassed they should raise it with the Committee.
- The Committee will take complaints of discrimination and harassment seriously.
- The Committee will investigate the complaint, listening to all parties involved:
  - If the complaint is against a Committee member, that member will not be part of conducting the investigation.
  - If the complaint is against an individual, that individual will have the opportunity to express their point of view in a safe environment and accompanied by a friend.
- The person making the complaint will have the same opportunity.
- If a complaint is found against Harmonie Concert Band, the Committee must work to ensure that such discrimination is not repeated in the future, and must inform the members of how they propose to do this. Employment practices
- Harmonie Concert Band aims to promote equality and inclusivity as an employer (including volunteers) and shall ensure that no volunteer, employee, person engaged to provide a service (e.g. freelance) or job/volunteer applicant receives less favourable treatment or is disadvantaged by the characteristics set out in the aims of this policy
- Harmonie Concert Band selects all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience.
- Selection, recruitment, training, promotion and employment practices will be subject to regular review to ensure that they comply with this Equality and Diversity Policy.
- Harmonie Concert Band regards discrimination, abuse, harassment, victimisation or bullying of staff or volunteers in the course of work as disciplinary offences that could be regarded as gross misconduct. DBS considerations
- Harmonie Concert Band actively promotes equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records.
- In assessing applicants' suitability for positions which are included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order using criminal record checks processed through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), Harmonie Concert Band complies fully with the code of practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly.

Request of DBS checks

- An application for a criminal record check is only submitted to DBS after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that one is both proportionate and relevant to the position concerned.
- For those positions where a criminal record check is identified as necessary, all application forms, job adverts and recruitment briefs will contain a statement that an application for a DBS certificate will be submitted in the event of the individual being offered the position.
- Harmonie Concert Band can only ask an individual to provide details of convictions and cautions that Harmonie Concert Band are legally entitled to know about, and where a DBS certificate at either standard or enhanced level can legally be requested (where the position is one that is included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 as amended, and, where appropriate, Police Act Regulations as amended).

- Harmonie Concert Band makes every subject of a criminal record check submitted to DBS aware of the existence of the code of practice and makes a copy available on request.

Outcome of check and selection process

- Harmonie Concert Band undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a criminal record check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed.
- Harmonie Concert Band undertakes to discuss any matter revealed on a DBS certificate with the individual seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of appointment.
- In an interview or separate discussion Harmonie Concert Band will:
  - only ask an individual about convictions and cautions that are not protected
  - ensure an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position.
- Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of appointment
